

Top Summer Getaways

Picture yourself standing on a glacier in Alaska, catching a Broadway show in New York City or watching the sun set on Santorini. Summer should be more fun than another day at the office.

Alaska →

Explore Mt McKinley, marvel at brown bears in the Alaskan wilds, or take a floatplane over the Inside Passage - the 49th state is the ultimate summer getaway (assuming you love 20+ hours of daily sunshine).

New York City →

Summer in New York City means Broadway matinees, lazy picnics in Central Park and art (with air-conditioning!) at the Met - plus a million other adventures waiting to unfold in the world's greatest city (no offense, Paris).

Santorini →

Hop from beach to beach. Stroll past white-washed buildings anchored on cliffs high above the sea. Watch the sunset over the Aegean. Tour a winery. Visit a monastery. Wake up and repeat.

Celebrate Mother Earth

Earth Day may officially take place only on April 22, but there are so many ways to experience the natural offerings of our incredible planet that we've decided to celebrate all month long.

Wildlife Down Under →

From Queensland rainforests to Outback sunsets, not to mention the Great Barrier Reef, Australia is one of Mother Nature's proudest achievements. Not to be outdone, New Zealand offers quite possibly THE most awe-inspiring place you'll ever see by boat - stunning Milford Sound.

North American Outdoor Adventures →

Snorkeling with whale sharks in the Yucatan, spotting grizzly bears in British Columbia, watching lava flow toward the sea from an active volcano in Hawaii - it's go big or go home in North America, where mountains soar and canyons (both Grand and otherwise) run deep.

Far East Rides & Treks →

Wanna go off the grid? Asia is where it's at. An overnight jungle tour from Goa, a week-long bike trip deep in the Chinese countryside and a hiking tour in Nepal (Everest views included) are just a few of the ways to explore this vast continent. Plus, there are pandas (how can you resist?).

Summer in Argentina

Summertime in Argentina means lots of time outside, especially in the Patagonia region, when its wide-open spaces dotted with glaciers, mountains and lakes are ready for visitors. More outstanding natural beauty is found on the Argentina-Brazil border, where Iguassu Falls will dazzle you with its thundering series of waterfalls. If the great outdoors isn't your thing, Buenos Aires heats up in summer with tango shows and walking tours of its elegant, colorful and cosmopolitan sights.

Explore Patagonia

Outdoor-lovers flock to scenic Patagonia to walk on glaciers and commune with nature at the end of the world. From El Calafate, hike to a waterfall and take in stunning scenery in Chile's Torres del Paine National Park, or see icebergs, crevasses and lagoons on the Perito Moreno Glacier. From Ushuaia, visit Tierra del Fuego National Park or go on a sailing tour.

Tour Buenos Aires

With its fantastic food, culture and atmosphere, Buenos Aires keeps you entertained all day. Discover the city on a bike tour, neighborhood walking tour or Evita-themed sightseeing tour, and spend your afternoon sampling Argentinian wine. End your day with a glamorous, theatrical tango show. Or spend a day in the countryside, experiencing the life of a gaucho.

Visit Iguassu Falls

Straddling the border of Brazil and Argentina, Iguassu Falls is an incredible natural wonder of 275 waterfalls of various sizes. Puerto Iguazu is the Argentina gateway - from here you can tour the Brazilian side, tour both sides and take other sightseeing tours to nearby attractions like the San Ignacio Mission or the Itaipu Dam on the Brazil-Paraguay border.

Carnival Time!

Carnival, the lead-up to Fat Tuesday, is a time to indulge, dress up and go to a fantastic party. If you find yourself in one of the three cities known worldwide for their Carnival and Mardi Gras festivities - Venice, New Orleans and Rio de Janeiro - you can be sure elaborate costumes, lively parades and lots and lots of revelry will be part of your vacation. But these destinations also offer cultural activities and relaxing day trips if loading up your neck with beads isn't quite your thing, or if you want a break from partying and dancing.

Carnival Time in Venice

If you're in Venice during Carnival, don a dramatic headpiece and head to the annual Best Mask contest. Venice's Carnival is a nostalgic event, so catch up on Venetian history on the Skip the Line Venice Walking Tour. Capture Venice's famed festival on a photography tour, or escape the sea of costumed celebrators on a food and wine day tour or trip to the Dolomites.

Carnival Time in New Orleans

Mardi Gras in New Orleans is all about partying on Bourbon Street in the French Quarter and checking out the many parades on Canal Street or St Charles Avenue. Find out more about the famous drinks you're downing on a cocktail walking tour, or get away from the raucous crowds at a cooking class, a plantation tour or a walking tour of the elegant Garden District.

Carnival Time in Rio de Janeiro

Carnival-goers in Rio de Janeiro celebrate at an elaborate samba parade or a wild street festival where the dancing never ends. See the exciting Brazilian dance up close at a samba dinner show, or ascend to the top of a Rio icon on a tour to Sugar Loaf Mountain. Get familiar with the city on a walking tour, or flee the chaos on a helicopter tour or bay cruise.

Multi-Day Trips

Multi-day trips are convenient, economical and often enlightening ways to see the highlights of a region. Simply board a coach, boat or train from your destination, and then relax and enjoy the sights while someone else takes care of your transportation and lodging. What could be better? We've got fantastic multi-day trips ranging from two to five days that take you to religious sites, tropical islands, historic castles, natural wonders and more across Europe, the Middle East and Africa, and Australia and New Zealand.

Europe

Europe's dense concentration of historic sites and scenery make multi-day trips easy. From Rome, spend three blissful days in Naples, Sorrento and Capri. Explore the best of Andalucia on a 4-day tour from Madrid. Five days in the Scottish Highlands from Edinburgh or three days in the Irish countryside from Dublin will delight, as will four days in classical Greece.

Middle East & Africa

See Africa's splendors on a 4-day cruise down the Nile from Aswan, a 3-day safari in Kruger National Park from Johannesburg or a 3-day tour to South Africa's wine country from Cape Town. In the Middle East, see the best of Jordan on a private 4-day tour to Petra and the Dead Sea from Amman, or experience Israel's highlights on a 2-day tour of Jerusalem and Bethlehem.

Australia & New Zealand

Explore Australia's legendary scenery on a 3-day tour to Kakadu National Park from Darwin, a 3-day camping tour of Ayers Rock \(Uluru\) from Alice Springs, a 3-day Great Barrier Reef catamaran tour from Cairns or a 2-day Great Ocean Road adventure from Melbourne. In New Zealand, spend three days in the Bay of Islands or five days discovering the South Island.
